Entente Allies Make Gains On All Fronts

Anglo-French Forces Drive Lines Ahead at Somme--- Russians, Italians And Roumanians Pressing Enemy

RUSSIAN REPORT.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

PETROGRAD, Sept. 4, (2:55 p.m.)—The Russians have broken across the Thenivka River, a western tributary of the Zlota Lipa, and seized a position on the Austro-German troops, the war office announcement today says. They took 2,721 prisoners and six machine guns.

The Russians' victory was won in the neighborhood of Brezany, fifty miles southeast of Lemberg. A gas attack near Baranovichi was repulsed. In the vicinity of Vladimir-Volynski, in Volhynia, fierce battles are in progress near Shelutsov and Korytnica. Heavy engagements also are under way along the upper Sereth.

The Russian forces in the Carpathians, the announcement says, have captured a whole series of mountain heights and are advancing to the Hungarian frontier.

Between Thursday and Sunday the troops of the Russian commander, General Brussiloff, captured over 100 guns, 385 officers and 19,020 men.

BRITISH REPORT.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

LONDON, Sept. 4, (3 p.m.)—As the result of the fighting yesterday north of the River Somme in France, says the British official statement issued today, British troops captured German trenches on a 3,000 yard front for an average depth of 800 yards, and including the village of Guillemont.

The whole of Ginchy at first was captured, but the British were compelled to give ground, retaining hold of part of the village, despite heavy counter attacks in the course of the night. More than 800 Germans were taken prisoner.

A later report says that in the morning the enemy made a counter attack against the newly won positions northwest of Mouquet Farm. He was easily repulsed. North of Falfemont Farm British troops gained further ground during the afternoon, and heavy fighting continues on this portion of our front.

FRENCH REPORT.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

PARIS, Sept. 4, (11:25 p.m. —"A bloody battle is going on on both banks of the Somme," says the official communication issued tonight. The French have made fresh progress east of the village of Le Forest north of the river, and on the south have succeeded in attaining objectives along a front of twenty kilometres (12½ miles) from Garleux to Chaulnes.

The village of Soyecourt was brilliantly carried by assault, as well as part of Vermandovillers. More than 5,000 prisoners have been taken north and south of the Somme in the last two days. Progress also was made on the right bank of the Meuse (Verdun) in the Fleury region, where the ground previously lost was recaptured.

The number of unwounded prisoners who were captured yesterday and today in the region of Fleury reached more than 500.

ROUMANIANS TAKE TWO MORE TOWNS

BUCHAREST, Roumania, Sept. 4.—The Roumanian war office announces that Roumanian troops have occupied Borszek and Zekeli, in Transylvania. The Teutonic-Bulgarian allies have been pushed back at Rasboieni, in Dobrudja, but elsewhere continue their attack along the whole frontier between Dobrudja and Bulgaria.

A raid by three hostile hydroplanes upon the city of Constanza, on the Roumanian coast of the Black Sea, with the wounding of several civilians and children, is announced.

The towns of Borszek and Szileki are in the extreme eastern portion of Transylvania, and the first named is the most frequented watering place in that province, and is situated in a romantic valley on the eastern Carpathians. It exports great quantities of mineral water, and has a population of 1,500. Basarabjik is a fortified town in the extreme southeastern portion of the Dobrudjan district of Roumania, while Isiaca and Rahfai are Roumanian frontier towns on the Danube River.

ITALIANS MAKE GAINS IN ALBANIA

ROME, Sept. 4, via London (8:25 p.m.)—Italian troops have made additional successes in Albania, east of Avlona, says an official statement given out today. The villages of Kula and Drizar have been occupied and Monte Gradiz have been taken. Later the statement says, the Italians retired to the right bank of the Voyusa having accomplished their object.

RUSSIANS HAVE GAINS IN CAUCASUS

PETROGRAD, Sept. 4, via London. —The Russian army of the Caucasus has made further progress, the war office reports, pushing forward south of the river Eliu. In the region of Genoli, 543 Turks were captured.

SERBIANS REPULSE BULGARS ATTACKS

SALONIKI, Sept. 4, via Paris.—Bulgarian troops have made another attack on the Macedonian front west of Lake Ostrovo. It was announced at the French army headquarters today that the attack had been repulsed by Serbians.

In addition to the fighting near Lake Ostrovo, there was considerable local activity on the Struma and Lake Doiran fronts, as well as intermittent cannonading.

HUNS ADMIT THAT GROUND WAS LOST

BERLIN, Sept. 4, via wireless to Sayville.—After violent fighting, says the Austro-Hungarian statement issued at Vienna yesterday, Mount Plumkin, southwest of Rafalievo in the Carpathians, was taken by the Russians.

Berlin, in a statement on Monday, in addition to the attacks of British and French successes in the fighting of Sunday in the Somme region, says the battling over the 18 miles front from Beaumont to the Somme was of the greatest ferocity. The Germans held their ground at Thiepval, north of Pozieres, and near Ginchy, but Guillemont village and wood were lost, as likewise was Ginchy, but a counter attack of the Germans won back a portion of the latter town.

The Germans say that the Russians obtained only local successes near Brzezany, but this is offset by the declaration of the Russians that they won a victory over the Teutons here and took 2,641 prisoners.

HOLIDAY EVENTS YESTERDAY ARE ALL POSTPONED BECAUSE OF RAIN

Reserve Militia Picnic at Cooking Lake May Be Held Later if Committee So Decide—Great West Garment Workers Will Go to Cooking Lake Next Saturday—Hunters Unable To Do Much Shooting.

At a late hour last night the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen committee decided that they would hold their picnic at Alberta Beach on Saturday next.

Owing to the continued bad weather the Reserve Militia picnic, announced to be held at Cooking Lake yesterday, was postponed.

Whether this only means a postponement, however, depends on the action of the committee, as a meeting will shortly be held to consider the question, and if the desire is general, the picnic will be held later on.

The Employees of the Edmonton, Dunvegan and British Columbia on Sunday, in anticipation of a wet day, decided to postpone their picnic, and it will take place next Saturday at St. Albert.

The Great West Garment Factory employees and staff were to go on Sunday to Alberta Beach yesterday in conjunction with the picnic of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and both of these were cancelled.

Arrangements are now being made to hold the Great West Garment Co's employees' picnic on Saturday next, in all probability at Cooking Lake, as although the place of holding has not yet been definitely settled.

The steamer City of Edmonton was to have made two trips to Laurier Park picnic grounds of Sunday day, with a moonlight excursion at night but here, again, the inclemency of the weather proved an obstacle to the enjoyment of any sort of the kind, and in consequence they were called off.

It's an ill wind that blows no good, and the ducks enjoyed a peaceful time during the holiday, while prospective hunters were uttering maledictions against the weather bureau.

Excursions arranged for the weekend had to be put off owing to the state of the roads, which had been bad all the week, and any idea of getting to Edmonton from the city over them was soon discounted by the heavy rain.

Hunters can take consolation to themselves that the ducks will have that much longer to grow and fatten, as reports say that the birds are yet fairly small and will be better in a few weeks time. So far it is understood, bags have been small.

RAIN AT OTHER POINTS.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

CALGARY, Sept. 4.—The Labor Day sports have been postponed until Saturday, September 9, on account of rain.

SASKATOON, Sept. 4.—What might have been an unusually good Labor Day celebration was spoiled by heavy rain, which kept up most of the day.

Fine at Regina.

REGINA, Sept. 4.—Labor Day was celebrated here today by a monster athletic meet at the Exhibition Grounds. No parade was held, and as a consequence hundreds of citizens turned out to the grounds to witness one of the best sport meets that has been held here for some time. Excursions to the various beaches in the vicinity of the city were well patronized. No accidents of any kind have been reported.

MOOSE JAW, Sept. 4.—The Labor Day celebration held today at the Exhibition Grounds, under the auspices of the Trades and Labor Council, was a great success although the weather was very threatening.

DRY WEATHER AND ABSENCE OF FROST WILL BRING CROP THROUGH

Farmers Have Been Worried For Past Two Days But Hope Now For Finer Weather — In Districts Around Edmonton Good Percentage of Grain Has Been Cut.

The weather for the past two days has not looked good to the farmers of Alberta. The happy smile was replaced by a look of anxious concern and a desire to see the blue sky once again. Fortunately, however, the steady rain has not been seen and the blanket of clouds, which hid the ripening heat of the sun, has sheltered the grain in crops at night from the ravages of frost. On all except the heavy clay soils, the binders will be commencing again as soon as the wind and the sun have removed the moisture from the standing fields.

Old timers in the Edmonton district have hope that the crop of 1916 will be safely garnered. They say that the oats are safe and that even in some cases where the wheat has been or might yet be damaged by frost the damaged grain can be fed at a profit to the stock. Much of the barley has already been cut and so there is available a large quantity of hog feed, in case the heavy crops go down and the binders cannot gather up all the tangled grain, there will then be the more left on the stubble for the herds of cattle to pasture on during the fall and winter. The successful mixed farmer is still happy and has little worry.

At Clover Bar about a quarter of the grain is cut. The binders were busy for about three days last week. The grain is ready for harvest as soon as dry enough to cut. The crops that are heavier are slower in maturing, but there is no damage yet. The grain that is lodged is practically matured, so the only loss will be the time lost in cutting it one way instead of running and round the field. Sydney Ottewell reports that his wheat this year is no heavier than it was last year, but that he has had for many years.

At Stony Plain probably a quarter of the crop is cut. The binders were busy for about 4 or 5 days last week and will be busy every possible day from now till the end of harvest. The heavy rain will lodge some of the heaviest grain, but the farmers think that the down grain will rise. There is no damage yet.

At the Sturgeon the wet weather has delayed the cutting, and the heavy grain is apt to go down. This may mean cutting some heavy fields only one way. Last week the binders were able to cut for 1-2 days. There has been no serious damage yet. The anxiety of the farmers will pass away when the clouds roll by without a frost as they hope. Today may see the skies clearing and the cool N. wind may make it possible to cut to-morrow.

At a meeting of the general executive committee of the Northern Alberta branch of the Canadian Patriotic Fund held last night in the Macdonald hotel the following assessments were struck on a basis considered fair and equitable amounts for the several constituencies in this part of the province to contribute towards the $150,000 that is required to be raised this fiscal year for the fund:

It was decided that the central committee have charge of all organization work and take complete charge of any district that they think not thoroughly organized.

The central committee was also empowered to confer with the provincial government on the question of having a paid organizer for those constituencies where the member is absent at the front, or where they consider such an official necessary to secure the best results.

A. F. Ewing, K.C., M.P.P., presided and the attendance included Hon. Chas. Stewart, Hon. J. R. Boyle, Hon. Wilfrid Gariepy, Hon. A. G. MacKay and the following other members of the legislature: Geo. HUNS ADMIT LOSING ZEPP

British Say There is Good Reason to Believe Another Was Destroyed

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

BERLIN, Sept. 5.—Official announcement was made here today that a German airship had been brought to earth on the night of September 2 "as a result of enemy fire."

BERLIN, Sept. 4.—A German admiralty statement issued earlier in the day on Saturday night's Zeppelin raid on the south-eastern counties of England, said:

German Story.

"During the night of September 2, several naval airships detachments combined all the forces of London and fortified places of Yarmouth and Harwich as well as factories and railroads of strategical importance in the southeastern counties and on the Humber. Everywhere good effects were observed, both on account of violent fires which broke out and explosions. Notwithstanding a strong bombardment all the naval airships returned undamaged. At the same time a number of army airships executed an attack on southern England.

Damage Practically Nil.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—Reporting on the German official statement regarding Saturday night's Zeppelin raid on England, the British press bureau says:

"The damage done, that is to say, practically nil, is exactly what was reported in the official communication. There were no conflagrations of any importance and no explosions. Moreover, there is the strongest reason to believe that another airship in addition to the one destroyed was very seriously damaged."

EX.-M.P. FROM SOUTH GREY DEAD

Champion of Famous Miller Anti-race Track Gambling Bill, Passes Away

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

HANOVER, Ont., Sept. 4.—Henry Horton Miller, ex-M.P. for South Grey, died this morning. He was 55 years of age. On Tuesday of last week he became suddenly ill. He was operated upon Thursday night and failed to rally. He was elected to the House of Commons in 1904, and re-elected in 1908, sitting until the general election of 1911. From 1905 he was chairman of the commons committee on banking and commerce. The famous Miller bill, to restrict race track gambling, was championed by him. He had been nominated Liberal candidate for the commons in the next general election.

With Warships Close to Athens Premier Throws Influence Against Huns

Profound Change in Status of Public Affairs is Effected Quickly. Zaimis is Now in Position to Control Whole Country As He Will. Has Received Unqualified Support of Venizelos Party and of Party Opposed to Venizelos—Greek Muddle Now Appears Solved

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

ATHENS, Sunday, Sept. 3, via London, Sept. 4.—Seizing the opportunity by the presence at Piraeus, within gunshot of Athens, of a large fleet of the entente nations, Premier Zaimis has assumed unobtrusively what amounted virtually to dictatorial powers. All is now in readiness for the final act to end the neutrality of Greece.

While the people of Athens were being mildly amused at the spectacle of allied sailors and secret police pursuing German agents about the streets, a profound change in the status of affairs was effected quickly. Premier Zaimis is now in a position to swing the whole country as he will, unembarrassed by any dissenting popular opinion or hostile or parliamentary control.

The first step which placed full powers in the hands of the premier was taken when he forbade public gatherings last Wednesday. The arrangement of Friday whereby the issuance of the decree dissolving the new adjourned parliament and calling new elections was postponed indefinitely, disposed effectually of any parliamentary interference with the premier's plans. Finally the premier yesterday requested and received the unqualified support of the leaders of the Venizelist party, and of the party opposed to Venizelos, thus giving the premier practically obtained a politically representative character and completing the necessary preparations which may be described as a coup d'etat, the ministry behind closed doors. Greece now finds herself at war overnight at the bidding of a single individual who is neither King Constantine nor former Premier Venizelos.

Solution Is Reached Quietly.

The solution of the political muddle which has kept Greece in a condition of virtual neutrality for two years, was effected quietly, and the public was not aware of the extent to which the constitution of Greece was virtually set aside or of the manner in which power was concentrated in the hands of the premier. The formation of a new ministry and in which all parties will be represented is a question of only a few days.

Meanwhile, the allies are rapidly ridding Athens and Piraeus of Austrian and German agents.

Accepts Demands in Full.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—The Greek government at Athens has accepted the demands of the entente powers in their entirety, it is stated in official French and British governments are today taking over the control of postal and telegraphic communication.

British and French ministers at Athens presented on Saturday a note to the Greek government demanding control of the postal and telegraph systems on the ground they were being used by enemies of the entente; demanding the dismissal of Austrian and German agents, and demanding the dismissal of certain officials employed in corruption and espionage must immediately leave Greece, and that measure be taken against Greek subjects guilty of complicity therein.

German Director Put Under Arrest.

ATHENS, via London, Sept. 4.—Baron Von Schenk, chief director of the German propaganda in Greece, has been arrested and taken aboard a cruiser of the entente powers. Sixteen additional warships of the entente powers have arrived at Piraeus.

Diplomats of the entente allies had demanded that Baron Von Schenk and sixty co-workers in behalf of the German empire be expelled from Greece. It was reported that he had barricaded himself in his home in Athens and surrounded it with a score of armed guards.

GERMAN SEAPLANES MAKE A RAID UPON ENGLISH EAST COAST TOWN

BERLIN, Sept. 4, via London, Sept. 5.—An official communication issued here today says:

"German seaplanes raided the harbor and naval reservoirs at Constanza, Roumania, and also bomber Russian warships, docks and railroads observed. The raiders returned safely."

GOVT. CONTROL OF OCEAN RATES

This is Urged by Judge Ramsbery of Seattle Harbor Commission

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

LONGVIEW, Wash., Sept. 4.—Would ocean freight rates be allowed to soar as they have done with other transportation charges are not permitted to? Why should not steamship rates be under government control as well as charges are?

The question was asked by Judge Remsberg, of the Seattle harbor commission, in the commissioner's session of the conference of Pacific port authorities, which opened here today. It will continue in full swing, it is decided till tomorrow morning's session. Judge Remsberg is the author of a paper on "the effect of the European war on American shipping," by Clarence H. Matson, secretary and traffic manager of the board of harbor commissioners of Los Angeles. A warm discussion is promised tomorrow morning when Capt. Robert Dollar of the Robert Dollar company, will be present to present the side of the ship owners on the question.

The conference opened at the board of trade rooms this morning with J. C. Carter-Cotton, president of the conference, and manager of the local harbor board, in the chair.

Mayor McBeath gave an address of welcome. After the reading of Mr. Matson's paper, read by one of his colleagues in his absence, a paper on "Portland and its canal approach," by H. G. Shattuck, engineer in the commission of public works, Portland, was read by W. D. Harvey, secretary of the Vancouver harbor.

HEAVY CASUALTY LISTS.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—Week-end casualty lists include 344 officers, of whom 102 are dead; 5,855 men, of whom 1,610 are dead. Regiments suffering are Royal Scots, West Yorkshires, Welsh Fusiliers, South Lanarkshires, Welsh Regiment, Durham Light Infantry, Shropshire Light Infantry, East Surreys, Warwickshires, Cheshires and Seaforths.

FINE WEATHER FOR VISITORS AT PEACE RIVER

Board of Trade Excursion Sees Northern Land Basking in Sunshine

Special to The Bulletin.

PEACE RIVER, Sept. 4.—With the sun shining brightly, as though it was especially anxious for the members of the Edmonton board of trade to get a good impression of the district, Peace River this afternoon welcomed the visitors from the south, many of whom were getting their first glimpse of the great northland. The E. D & B.C. train arrived at 3:15 in the afternoon, and during the four hours spent in Peace River and the district which is immediately tributary to the town, the party left for Spirit River, returning by the same route as it came, and thence will leave on Tuesday morning for the town of Spirit River and the Dunvegan district.

The citizens of Peace River had planned a good reception for the Edmonton business men, and if the men from the south were not over pleased with what they saw, it was not for the want of determination on the part of the citizens to make a favorable impression. The train of three Pullman coaches and the private car Lac La Biche, which was placed at the disposal of the excursionists by the E. D. & B.C. railway, left the town at seven o'clock tonight for McLennan, and will arrive in Spirit River on Tuesday afternoon. Leaving Spirit River at 10 p.m. on Tuesday the party will arrive in the town of Grand Prairie at 4 a.m. on Wednesday. A full day will be spent in the Grand Prairie district, and according to the present plans, the Edmonton business men should arrive home at 7 p.m. Thursday night.

EX-MINISTERS' FATE IS NOW IN HANDS OF JURY

Judge Prendergast Finishes His Charge at 11 O'Clock

REVIEWS EVIDENCE IN LONG ADDRESS

Criticises the Testimony Of Crown's Star Witness Horwood

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

WINNIPEG, Sept. 4.—At eleven o'clock tonight the jury which is trying Sir Rodmond Roblin, George R. Coldwell and James H. Howden, retired to consider the evidence and to endeavor to arrive at a verdict. Ten minutes later the court was formally adjourned until tomorrow morning at 10:30, before which hour no verdict can be reached.

Mr. Justice Prendergast charged the jury for two hours and a half. He reviewed the evidence briefly, pointed out some details of the charges which would be discussed, and explained the laws of conspiracy.

Lead Evidence Against Roblin.

"It is an obvious fact," stated his lordship, "that there is not all the evidence against Sir Rodmond Roblin as against the other accused, and there is not the evidence against Mr. Howden as against Mr. Coldwell. Horwood's evidence as against Sir Rodmond, taken at is face value, is very meagre."

His lordship pointed out the importance of the case. He did not think it was seriously contended that what came had been "sunk or lost" in the construction of the parliament buildings. This was a glaring fact.

On a few facts, continued his lordship, there was no evidence at all or what there was, was favorable to the accused. He had already ruled out evidence of defective workmanship. The accused should not be charged, he said, with the change in design from piles to caissons, and from reinforced concrete to steel. He held that the time allowed for original tenders was sufficient, and that the accused were justified in asking for tenders on the original specifications though some changes had been decided upon. He held that there was "no evil design" in the estimates of prime costs from the specifications, and that the change from rubble stone to brick for foundation walls was proper. The jurors, he said, were not to consider these matters at all. They were, however, to enquire into the letting of tenders, the construction of the caissons, the steel contracts and the Salt charges.

Criticizes Horwood's Evidence.

There was no doubt, declared Judge Prendergast, that the witness Horwood had perjured himself, even if from a mistaken sense of loyalty to his ministers. In matters of the greatest importance, he said, he was "short of definiteness" in Horwood's evidence, and he pointed out that it was unsafe to accept the evidence of an accomplice unless corroborated. It was for the jury to judge of the corroboration of Horwood's story in the evidence presented to them. His lordship reminded the jury that the accused were entitled to the benefit of any reasonable doubt.

CHIEF GERMAN TOWN IS TAKEN

Dar-Es-Salaam, in German East Africa, Falls in British Hands

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

LONDON, Sept. 4.—It is announced officially that Dar-Es-Salaam, the chief town in German East Africa, surrendered to the British forces this morning.

The statement says that British naval forces in co-operation with troops from Bagamoyo and Saadani are now occupying Dar-Es-Salaam, south of Mrogoro, 100 miles west of Dar-Es-Salaam, pursuit of the main German forces continues. The southern main body, the statement adds, is in the region of Mahenge, on the mountain slopes of the Ulgur mountains.

Lieut.-Col. Vanderventer, in command of a British force, has reached Kikumi, 42 miles south of Kilossa. Brigadier-Gen. Northey, at the head of another British force, has occupied Neuringa.

Dar-Es-Salaam is the most important seaport of German East Africa. Before the war it was the residence of a governor and contained a military station. It is on the Indian Ocean about 275 miles below the frontier of British East Africa. The town evidently will forfeit its British colonial which has been pushing down the coast, one of several expeditionary forces sent out by the British, French, Belgian and Portuguese, which are gradually surrounding the remaining German force.

NORWEGIAN SHIPS SUNK.

LONDON, Sept. 4.—The Norwegian steamships Gothard and Setesdal have been sunk, according to an announcement made at Lloyd's shipping agency this afternoon.

Preparing For Garden Party On Thursday

Workmen are busy at Government House making ready the beautiful grounds for the garden party on Thursday afternoon and evening. Electric wiring has been strung over the building and among the shrubs and trees on the grounds. Over 2,000 electric bulbs, in red, white and blue, will be used in illuminating and decorating. The ladies are very busy making preparation for the refreshment booths, which will be very prettily decorated. No details are to be overlooked, and it is confidently expected that the weather will be clear and that a large number will avail themselves of this opportunity of calling upon Governor Brett and seeing the great improvement he has been making in the spacious and beautiful grounds at Government House. Your presence will add encouragement to the ladies of the Red Cross society and to the Vacant Lots Garden Club.

Presentations Are Made By Press Club

On Sunday afternoon the Edmonton branch of the Women's Press Club gathered at the home of the president, Mrs. Reginald Smith, to honor two prominent members, Mrs. Andrewes Dickins and Mrs. Beaufort, on the eve of their departure. The charming little home was bright with a profusion of cut flowers and clusters of deep-hued roses festooned sweet peas.

Expressing their best wishes for the best of good luck for Mrs. Dickins and Mrs. Beaufort, who reserve at the departure, the club presented the former with a very dainty china marmalade jar and the latter with a pretty china of flowers. Very charming "Thankyes" came from both—and a right happy hour was spent.

Those present included Mrs. Thom, who is the guest of Mrs. Smith, Mrs. Arthur Murphy, Mrs. Dickins, Miss Kells, Mrs. J. F. Price, and Miss Evelyn Murphy.

BIG CONGRESS MEETS

BIRMINGHAM, Eng., Sept. 4.—Opening the Trades Union Congress here today, its president, Harry Gosling, said that to prove that internationalism was not dead, the congress was seeking the fraternal delegates from the United States, France and Belgium. Many times were in the meeting pot at this time of national anxiety, he said, and in the emergency thousands of trades unionists had given their lives willingly because they believed the sacrifice essential for national defense.

If Subject To Colds, Here is Good Advice

Don't load your stomach with cough syrups. Send healing medication through the nostrils—and into the passages that are subject to colds and catarrh. Easy to do this with Catarrhozone, which cures a cold in ten minutes. Even in the lungs and throat where vapor of Catarrhozone—all healing vapor of Catarrhozone—all through the bronchial tubes, nostrils and air passages—everywhere a trace of disease remains will Catarrhozone follow. You'll not have colds, nor will you suffer from sniffles, bronchitis or throat trouble if Catarrhozone is used. Don't it today but beware of dangerous substitutes meant to deceive you for genuine Catarrhozone. All dealers sell Catarrhozone, large size, two months treatment, costs $1.00; small size 50c; sample size 25c.

BRITISH TO GIVE MILITARY HONORS TO ZEPP. VICTIMS

Bodies Will be Interred in Oak Coffins Wrapped in German Flags

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

LONDON, Sept. 5 (2:30 a.m.).—Officers and men of the German airship destroyed Saturday night while raiding England will be buried with full military honors. The bodies probably will be put in separate graves on a churchyard near the spot where found.

Each body will be placed in an oak coffin, covered with a German flag, and carried to the burial place on a gun carriage. British soldiers will compose the firing party, and a British army chaplain will conduct the services.

The only development in connection with the raid comes from the east coast. It is a report that the wreckage, apparently that of the gondola of another airship, has been found. It is believed to be part of the zeppelin shot away by coast defense guns.

BUCHAREST PEOPLE CELEBRATING ENTRY INTO TRANSYLVANIA

Roumanians Have Secured Great Strategic Advantage by Their Rapid Advance

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

LONDON, Sept. 4.—A Reuter despatch from Bucharest says:

"The country is joyously celebrating the entry of the victorious Roumanian army into the principal Transylvania town of Kronstadt, on the third day of the fighting; the successful forcing of all the Carpathian passes which were formidably organized and stubbornly defended and the invasion of Hungary along the whole line to a distance of about 10 to 25 miles, giving the army, by its swift advance, enormous strategic advantage for the eventual operations.

"So far, Bulgaria is pursuing a policy of prudent reserve with regard to Roumania. Members of the German and Turkish legations left Bucharest Sunday."

SPLITTING PAINS IN THE MUSCLES DRIVEN OUT QUICKLY BY "NERVILINE"

Rheumatic Pains Go—Suffering Ceases—Cure Comes in Even Chronic Cases.

For aching bones and sore muscles nothing will sooth away the pain like Nerviline.

For nerve-wracking twinges in the muscles, for torturing backache or lumbago, you'll find Nerviline is full of amazing power.

You see, Nerviline has the power—it's about five times stronger than ordinary remedies, and can penetrate very deeply. It contains juices and extracts of certain herbs that give it a strange power to drive out congestion, inflammation or pain.

You are safe in using Nerviline. Just rub it on—it won't blister or burn, and can do nothing but good. Remember there is pain or suffering Nerviline will go and will drive it out. It penetrates to every cell of sore muscle; it sinks to the heart of every stiff sore joint; it searches out every bit of rheumatic pain quickly.

Give Nerviline a trial. See how fast it will limber your lame back, how quickly it will cure neuralgic headache, how fast it will break up a bad cold or ease a sore throat.

The best family pain-remedy ever made is Nerviline. Forty years of great success proves this.

For emergent ills, when the doctor isn't handy, there is nothing better than the 50c family size bottle; trial size 25c, all dealers, or the Catarrhozone Co., Kingston, Canada.

TRAINS COLLIDE AT VANCOUVER

Head-on Collision on Pacific Great East Results in Twenty-two Injured

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

VANCOUVER, Sept. 4—A head-on collision between two trains on the Pacific Great Eastern line at West Bay, today, resulted in ten persons being admitted to the Harbor View sanitarium at North Vancouver, and minor injuries to about a dozen others who are receiving medical attention on the spot, were allowed to proceed to their homes. Both engines and a car of each train were damaged and derailed, and it was not until after 10 o'clock tonight that the gangs of men who were hastened to the spot had cleared the line. At the time of the collision the westbound train was filled with holiday excursionists. The news of the collision soon reached the city and immediately there was a great rush for the North Vancouver ferry on the part of those who had friends on the trains.

The trains which clashed were both passengers—one from White Cliff, and the other from Vancouver—and they dashed into each other head-on at 12:55 on rounding a point just beyond West Bay. How such an extraordinary smash could have occurred at such an hour is at present being investigated.

Showing at the Dreamland for the last time today.

ON THE STAGE AND SCREEN

FINE ALL ROUND BILL AT PANTAGES THEATRE.

For all round excellence the bill submitted at the entertainment of holiday-makers at the Pantages Theatre yesterday must be classed as good as the best that has ever been presented in the house. Perhaps the first there was not a turn that was uninteresting; and some were not only exceptionally interesting, but stood on a plane of their own.

The latter description is particularly applicable to the act of the three Mori Brothers, which is with a certain amount of aptness entitled "Japanese Pastimes." Fun there is a-plenty—one of the trio simply pulls in it—but one can hardly conceive every member of the island empire performing those clever and daring feats which amazed the audience, especially one which not only showed a will to take the risk, but a flexibility of body that could only be acquired by a long and patient athletic training. It was little wonder that the three little men got applauded to the echo.

Interspersed with music that is more tuneful than is usually supplied to carry along the ordinary medley, "A Nut Sundae" had the appropriation of the house throughout, while the last pretty song and chorus helped in good measure to increase the body of appreciation. The Sundae, it should be pointed out, has no analogy, except in name to the concoction that is served in properties at the soda fountain. It annotates the want of matrimonial felicity in the hot household, and this background of the corn fields and bucolic economy gives the offering a somewhat original setting for the dancing and fun one has a right to expect. There is an entertaining selection of each, and these and the agreeable people make up an act that is very enjoyable.

Clifford and Mack are decidedly smart in their nonsensical singing and dancing. Then Valentine Vox is a marvel in a ventriloquist. He has one and himself not only supply a capital bit of comedy, but Mr. Vox acts the ventriloquist, wondering how he does it, when the assistant sings with him the duets and the solos—and sings, like natural voice and the falsetto being equally distinct, between. Vox and Hyman, singers and instrumentalists, supply not the least uninteresting of the bill and put out a bit which is enjoyable all through.

The picture bill at Pantagescope this week is the stone forest of Arizona, a wonder of the prehistoric age.

DUSTIN FARNUM IN A DAVY CROCKETT.

Like Lochinvar of old, Dustin Farnum, starring in "Davy Crockett," the Pallas-Paramount screen feature at the Monarch theatre the first two days this week, is on hand in time. Crockett, so the story goes, was a poor but honest frontiersman. Eleanor Vaughn reads to him this fascinating romantic poem and he never forgets.

As Barnes to real estate, there comes a day when Eleanor is about to be influenced into marrying a man she does not really love. As the wedding day approaches her heart turns to Davy Crockett. Davy in the meantime hears the story of Lochinvar, and although he answers "Yes," he does not understand.

Then when Eleanor leaning towards him says tenderly "What would Ellen have done if Lochinvar had failed her," understanding comes to "Davy Crockett." Crockett's role of another Lochinvar gives Dustin Farnum a chance to this dramatic and stirring story of frontier days.

On the same program with this Pallas-Paramount feature is one of the latest Nestor comedies with all the old Nestor favorites in some of their best roles.

BROKEN FETTERS FOR LAST TIMES TODAY.

Violet Mesereau, the dainty and fascinating star of Bluebird Photoplays, is the star in "Broken Fetters," announced for exhibition at the Dreamland theatre today for the last time, with William Garwood, her leading man. Rex Ingram has written a stirring picture-play and produced it himself, thus insuring the fulfillment of all that is best in the method and manner of the presentation. The scenes are laid in China during the early progress of the play, and the culmination of the story brings the characters to New York's Chinatown, where thrilling encounters and various complications maintain the interest in the drama at extreme tension.

TRIANGLE PHOTOPLAY IS ENTERTAINING.

Without a blemish in construction, with distinct originality in the scenes, and adequate realization in setting, acting and subtitles, "Little Meena's Romance," the Triangle photoplay that is shown at the Empress theatre for the last time today, moves softly and sweetly into one's heart, keeping one busy guessing as well as perpetually entertaining. The role of Little Meena could not have been assigned to Dorothy Gish—she is Little Meena. "Love Will Conquer," is one of those screamingly funny Keystone Komedies that are proving one of the big drawing cards on the stellar programs that are now being presented at the Empress. The change in the Empress orchestra by the addition of the musicians from the Macdonald hotel has proved a happy one, and patrons of the Empress are being treated to a class of music far ahead of anything presented before at "The Home of the Pipe Organ," and that is saying a great deal. Careful rehearsing is shown in the rendition of the numbers, which were well received by yesterday's audiences.

LIG RUSH FOR TICKETS FOR CHERNIAVSKY CONCERT

The sale of seats for the Cherniavsky concert opened last Friday morning, and there were people waiting to buy tickets before Heintzman's store opened for business. This early interest, which continued all day Friday and Saturday indicates even a larger audience than was present on April 10th, when the Cherniavskys made their first memorable appearance in Eechirlin Hall.

"The Standard," of Nov. 19th, says: "The Cherniavsky Brothers are three of the most remarkable young men in the world of executive music. It seems only a little while ago that Jan and Mischel Cherniavsky appeared as wonder-children, and had a world of 'promises' showered upon them. As a matter of fact, it was only yesterday afternoon, at Eechirlin Hall, that these three prodigies, now quite big boys, tardily justified the most hopeful prognostications of their more indulgent friends. The event was in the nature of a farewell recital, for the young musicians are booked up to 1916 for a world tour.

FAST GOING BY MOTOR BOATS

Miss Minneapolis Averaged Fifty Miles Per Hour in Detroit Races

DETROIT, Sept. 4—Miss Minneapolis, driven by Minneapolis Motor Boat Association, averaging nearly fifty miles an hour, today won the second 30-mile heat of the National Power boat races here. She crossed the line first in each of the six laps and won in 41:46. Miss Detroit, the cup defender, was second; Peter Pan VIII, of the Columbia Yacht club, New York, third, and Hawkeye of the Lake Erie Motor Boat club, fourth. The day's sport was marred by two accidents.

Shortly after the start, after setting up a new world's record of 66 miles an hour in the first lap, caught fire near the finish of the second time around and was totally destroyed. Her driver, John Wood, of Detroit, was burned slightly.

The other accident, a collision of three express cruisers, necessitated calling off the express cruisers' race. Miss Minneapolis' fastest five miles was made in 6:47. She was across the starting line 11 seconds after the gun and was never headed.

A holiday crowd of fully 200,000 people witnessed the race from the shores of the city and Belle Isle.

The Minneapolis now has 14 points on the Golden cup; Peter Pan VII, of Detroit, 12 each, and Hawkeye 8. The third and final heat will be run tomorrow, and on Wednesday the one-mile championship of America will be competed for.

FIERCE FIGHT IS CENTERING AT FALFEMONT

Artillery Useless and Men Fight With Cold Steel

EYE-WITNESS TELLS OF MONDAY'S BATTLE

Describes Bloody Combat at Junction Of Two Armies

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FRANCE, Sept. 4.—A wonderful spectacle of war was visible today from a high point near the junction of the French and British armies. To the north lay a dark patch, the ruins of Guillemont, fringed by a wavelike earthy line of old second line German trenches facing Trones wood across a space of ten city blocks which is veiled like a frog's foot with trenches and runaways the British had dug.

For six weeks the British burrowed against the Germans over this shell ruptured, bullet riddled field. Yesterday was a day of successful British effort to break through this German bulwark. The British artillery had not destroyed all of the deep dugouts but the curtain of intensified shell fire kept the machine gunners down and out of those dugouts after half an hour's work the British infantry turned out some six hundred prisoners.

British Firmly Established.

A little further beyond Guillemont more than three times the distance from second base to the home plate is a sunken road, at the north end of which is another patch—the ruins of Cinchy—where the fighting between Britons and Germans surges back and forth between barricades and cellars and any kind of cover the men can throw up. The British seem to be firmly established in the sunken road. All night, they were digging themselves into here. They were glad as much their objective as second base is for a baseball player who has just made a two-base hit. If they tried to go further because the going was easy they might be put out. That happened yesterday in some points of the attack, as it sometimes does, thanks to over-eagerness. At the southern end of the sunken road is a finger point of the green wedge wood and below this lay Falfemont farm, where the British attack stopped yesterday. There the Prussian Guard left their trenches in a rage to meet the British attack half way. Thus they came—bayonet to bayonet.

Fought Until Cold Steel.

The artillery could send no shells, the guns no bullets, for fear of hitting their own men. All the machines of war with their missiles which kill men at long range had been a ring around these combatants who fought virtually to perfection with cold steel. Around Falfemont farm the picture was intimate yet incomprehensible to observers by reason of the smoke pall. The contrast between Prussian and British methods stood out as in a panorama. The British charge, moving up with each unit depending on the other itself and yet keeping its formation and then the German counter attack in a regular line, bristling with steel. Around Falfemont farm the picture was intimate yet incomprehensible to observers by reason of the smoke pall. The contrast between Prussian and British methods stood out as in a panorama. The British charge, moving up with each unit depending on the other itself and yet keeping its formation and then the German counter attack in a regular line, bristling with steel, stepping with the undulations of the ground. Above the British line a sergeant drop as the British machines started to rattle, and yet the second wave came on in a way that made British officer, with characteristic mortemanship, exclaim "Magnificent!" The second melted on the ground where the first wave had disappeared, but the results were confused. An observer could only tell that charges were met by counter charges, and machine guns in hidden places waited for their game with their murderous blasts.

It could not always be told whether figures moving were British or men retreating or prisoners under escort.

Fast Moving Figures Seen.

Fast running figures from both sides to their rear were either messengers bringing back word on the situation to their commanders when all other signals failed to work, or they were running to get more bombs, whose puffs of smoke were visible in places here. Whether these gallant fellows would get through without being hit was the question. Most of the time they were lost to view in mists of shell smoke. Further south the blue of the French mingled with the khaki of the British as the men like ants appeared and disappeared on the earth and back of the lines French and British guns and transport. The British wounded are French wounded came along the same path with German prisoners.

Sometimes British litter bearers took Frenchmen with Prussian helmets. General French's guns were very busy down there in the green lowland by the winding Somme. Where shrapnel smoke lay soft against the foliage, fresh from the night's rain, and over the Somme as far as the eye could see rim fire scores of flashes from field guns that seemed to answer in their regular firing to the touch of some master hand. Nearer and nearer became that swath of fire moved with heavy bursts.

French Know How To Use Guns.

"The Germans did not know how many guns Father Joffre had up his sleeve," said a French soldier, "and General Foch knows how to use them."

As indicative of the enormous gun fire a British officer estimated that the Germans fired ten thousand shells in one day. Tonight the official reports are that the Germans still hold Falfemont farm, but the afternoon's scrimmage and charges and counter charges

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1916

Berlin papers suspect that Bulgaria is in danger of being shut out by a squeeze play.

Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper holds that a Conservative is not necessarily a Bowservative.

By the way, if it is necessary to ask that a half hour of each week be given up to teaching the Bible in the public schools, what has gone wrong with the Sunday school?

The Montreal Gazette thinks the Government could save money on blue books without imperiling the fate of the nation. No doubt. Also, and more so, the transactions recorded therein.

There are as many branches of religious thought or prejudice as there are hours in the school week. Proficiency in religious knowledge is to be required of a child at the examinations, it is clear, that either children whose parents refuse to allow them to study the prescribed course will be penalized, or else the teaching of other subjects will have to be dropped and the schools turned into theological academies for the teaching of all branches of religion which may happen to be represented in this cosmopolitan community.

The course of study in our schools is already loaded down till it looks like the catalogue of a mail-order house. The standing wonder is how children emerge from the schools with any really solid grasp of the essentials of a common school education. There is, indeed, room for doubt whether they do so, or whether they come out with only a variegated cargo of undigested information on subjects too numerous to mention, and with no permanent stock of real knowledge of the things they need to know to make their ways through life. The proposal to add an assortment of religious creeds to the curriculum is in the way of over-doing what is already overdone—scattering the child's attention over so many branches of study that it has neither time, strength nor inducement to study any of them.

Under the law in Alberta either Roman Catholics or Protestants have the right to establish a separate school in a district in which they find themselves in the minority and are dissatisfied with the teaching in the public school. Hitherto this right has not been exercised in any general way. In consequence, there are throughout the province thousands of Roman Catholic children attending Protestant public schools, and considerable numbers of Protestant children attending Roman Catholic public schools. To start religious instruction in public schools of either sort must in these circumstances tend to encourage the establishment of separate schools, to arouse the susceptibilities of one or other of the religious parties, and to make generally for division among them in educational matters along religious lines. That is not desirable on any consideration, for it would make for sectionalism in the community, lessen the efficiency of the school system, and certainly would not conduce to a wholesome spirit between the differing religious bodies and branches.

It would be odd if the Huns broke with the "Huns."

The way things are going, if Constantine has good sense the rumor about him skipping the country is correct.

The Bulgarians announce that they have taken Kastoria. Before they get through they will think they have taken Prussic acid.

It is "estimated" at Ottawa that the new Dominion arsenal will be ready to make rifles and ammunition by the time the war is over.

It may be that the Rumanians had to hurry into the war before the Hungarians deprived them of the chance by getting out of it. Transylvania is part of Hungary.

Constantine has abdicated in favor of his son, and Ferdinand of Bulgaria is thought to be planning a similar move. Anything to keep the crowns in the Hohenzollern family.

Ferdinand of Bulgaria is in Vienna and likely to stay there, and Constantine of Greece has given up the job. One difference is that Napoleon used to enthrone his friends, whereas the Kaiser dethrones them.

If it is true that Prussia has been cultivating the Hungarian desire to break away from Austria it need not be put down to panic among the Berlin strategists. It may only mean that they have got tired defending Hungary, and think they have enough on hand in taking care of themselves and Austria.

A Rome dispatch says Hungary is about to work a surprise game on the Austrians by demanding the return of the Hungarian troops—ostensibly to chase out the Russians and Rumanians—and to then use them to back up a demand for separation from Austria. If there is anything in the story, Rome might have kept quiet about it and given the scheme a chance to succeed.

President Wilson decided to arbitrate as to whether the Mexicans shall stop shooting Americans, but insists on deciding as to whether United States railway employees shall get what they demand from the companies. Shareholders in United States railways are apt to think they would have less to fear from Washington if they were Mexican bandits who had shot up a Texas town.

It may be, as reported, that Sweden has agreed to invade Russia in order to destroy the significance of Rumania's action and restore the damaged prestige of the Hun cause. After what Bulgaria did there is no telling what nation may make a fool of itself in like manner. But there is nothing in the Swedish character or history to mark them as a people likely to throw away their own substance to save somebody else's shadow.

THE CENSORSHIP.

The Ottawa Journal divides with the Toronto News the doubtful honor of being the most unreasoning and unreasonable of Canadian newspapers in its support of the Borden government and its tragic military mal-administration. It endorses wholeheartedly the supply of Canadian soldiers with rotten boots, spavined horses, inefficient rifles and indecent equipment. It hurrahs for the profits made by Aitken on Canadian cartridges and on British fuses. But even the Journal has to draw the line somewhere, and does it at the government's censorship policy. On August 29th its leading editorial was headed "Let Us Hear From Our Troops." The following extracts are informing as well as interesting, especially considering their source:

"Whoever is responsible for communicating to the Canadian public such movements of Canadian troops as are not inconsistent with censorship regulations is not performing his task well. Canada now has 100,000 men engaged in actual fighting in the most thankworthy angle of all history. Realizing this, it is inconceivable that despite all the modern facilities of communication the people of the Dominion are kept in ignorance of the movements of their soldiers for weeks at a time.

"Take the case of the British Army. In the beginning of the war all newspapermen were barred. The result was that the British public was kept in the dark. There were the usual atrocious narratives of the "eye-witness" which few live newspapers would print and which nobody would read, and official reports of the actual operations were only given out about once a month. This policy of secrecy had the inevitable end in the nation waking up one day to find that it had been lulled into a false sense of security by sugar-coated stories of fine strategic retreats and all the rest of it, that it hadn't enough men, munitions or anything else to combat the greatest war engine in history, and that things at the front were in a bad way. The result was that the subterranean scrap was so mostly kicked out and a policy of light, air and energy immediately brought into play. Today, and for more than a year past, the British issue a daily official report of operations, and reliable newspapermen are with the armies at the front. No secrets are given away, and the result is generally satisfactory to the public.

"The Journal does not suggest that the censorship system is anything like the same arguments, can apply to the Canadian situation, but it does seem that it is stupid, if not unfair, that the Canadian public should have to get its news at a time without a word from the front, and then be expected to feed for hours and hash decayed platitudes that betray a lack of alertness and inactivity of the writer."

Newspaper supporters of Premier Hearst of Ontario seize on the fact that North Toronto and Southwest Toronto went against the government as proof that the annihilation or legislation of last session should be weakened or repealed. The Hearst government brought on both these elections. Did they want to find an excuse for repealing the bar? So far as Southwest Toronto was concerned there never was a chance to elect a prohibitionist. This was so well known that Premier Hearst endorsed a candidate who avowed himself as opposed to prohibition.

North Alberta Oil

There is no question that oil has been struck in the MacArthur well at Peace River at a moderate depth and of satisfactory quality. As yet the flow of the well has not been demonstrated. Even if it proves to have a paying capacity, judged by ordinary standards, that will not make the well a paying proposition. There must be more than one well to make any one well pay. There must be enough wells and enough oil to warrant the putting in of refineries and transportation and marketing facilities.

Now that the existence of oil of the right quality in a convenient location and at moderate depth has been demonstrated the great and only question is, what are the probabilities of there being a large producing field. That is a question to which geology gives the first and general answer but capital investment must give the final and definite answer.

The geological conditions of the Peace River region in which the well is situated extend throughout the greater part of the drainage area of the Mackenzie river, many thousands of square miles in extent. Indications of oil are found at widely separated points throughout the whole area. At Tar island, a few miles below the McArthur well there is an outcrop of tar sand, or asphalt, that has been known for many years.

At the Chutes or falls of the Peace below Vermilion and some three hundred miles below Peace River town Mr. D. A. Thomas interested prospects so attractive that they are now drilling for oil at that point. They are so confident of striking it that they have built a river steamer, for transport purposes in connection with development, and have fitted it so that its furnaces can be readily made or replaced to burn oil.

On the Athabasca at McMurray, 200 miles northwesterly from Edmonton, the river runs for 100 miles between banks of tar sand. The bituminous oil is exuded from the banks by the heat of the sun and runs down into the river.

A number of wells have been drilled there but none seem to have been successful as yet. Drilling has been generally suspended since the war, partly because of financial stringency and partly because the investors were waiting the completion of the railway railway to McMurray, as operations could then be carried on more efficiently and economically.

On the south shore of Great Slave lake and east of the Slave river, heavy crude oil is found in pools on the surface of the ground.

An oil spring exists in the bed of the Mackenzie near Fort Norman, and still further north in the country northeast of Fort Good Hope and within the Arctic circle, pools of crude oil also are found on the surface.

So many points at which crude oil is found scattered so far apart and over so vast area with the same geological conditions throughout, is the best indication that the strike at Peace River is not likely to be an isolated instance or freak, but rather is the assurance that a very new oil bearing territory has been tapped. The only question is has it been tapped in the right place. That can only be demonstrated by drilling more wells.

It might be well to say here that the conditions in regard to oil in Northern and in Southern Alberta are entirely different. In Southern Alberta the oil discovered was remarkably light. It came out of the Devonian rocks in the foothills of the Rocky Mountains. In Northern Alberta the oil is heavy and comes from the formations far east of the upheavals of the Rockies. The chances of finding oil in heavy bodies is therefore much greater in Northern than in Southern Alberta. It has also been found at much less depth in the North than in the South.

BROWNE DNFAR NELSON

NELSON, Sept. 4.—Fred Beguin, a stock raiser, was drowned in the Lardo river Friday, when a boat capsized, according to a report reaching Nelson today. H. Denores and Chas. Begnin were also in the boat. Denores was the only one who could swim. He saved Chas. Begnin and returned to the water for Fred Begnin but failed to find him.

There are higher things in life for a woman than a good complexion—a pretty bonnet, for instance.

CALLS FOR ACTION BY THE GOVERNMENT

Editor Bulletin.

Sir,—Noticing a letter published in your paper of Saturday last under the caption "The Militia and the Overseas Forces" and appreciating it in an apparently sincere effort on the part of the writer to forward the interests of our Dominion and Empire, it struck me as timely that particular attention should be called to the merits of the military service question from its various angles.

The writer erred in that his inference is that all men of military age and apparent physical fitness should be at Sarcee. He is wrong in at least two ways; for some of them should be in France rather than at Sarcee at this late date, and, seriously, it is certain that some of them who are at Sarcee should be used at once, as their services would be more valuable to the Dominion and Empire right at home looking after their families and pursuing their regular calling.

As to the first proposition, as the writer does not sign his name, and as I do not know him or whether or not he is a single man without dependents, it is not clear whether or not he is one who should be urging from France rather than from Sarcee.

As to the second proposition, this cannot be dealt with generally, but, fortunately, we have an excellent guide to enable all men to form an opinion for themselves in their duty.

In the year 1904, the Dominion Government (Laurier) passed an Act, "The Militia Act" (Cap. 41, R.S.C., 1906). It is under this act, in conjunction with several orders in council, I believe, that our expeditionary forces are being raised for service in this war.

Under that act (s. 11), only the following men of military age, being British subjects, who are physically fit, are exempt from service (though all the exempted persons may waive their exemption): Members of the King's Privy Council for Canada, Judges of all Courts of Justice, members of the executive councils of provinces; deputy ministers of federal and provincial governments; clergy and ministers of all religious denominations; telegraph clerks in actual employment; officers and clerks regularly employed in the collection of the revenue; wardens and officers of all the prisons and lunatic asylums; members of the naval militia; members of the police force and fire brigade, permanently employed in incorporated cities, towns and village; professors in colleges and universities, and teachers in religious orders; the only son of a widow, being her support; pilots and apprentice pilots during the season of navigation, and persons who, from the doctrines of their religion, are averse to bearing arms or rendering personal service, but only under such conditions as are prescribed.

All other men between the ages of 18 and 60, if physically fit, are liable to be called upon by the Governor General in Council for military service—"Anywhere in Canada, and beyond Canada, for the defence thereof, at any time when it appears advisable so to do by reason of emergency" (Sec. 69);

And they "shall be called upon to serve in the order in which they are referred to" in section 15, which is:

"Class I.—The first class shall comprise all those of the age of eighteen years and upwards, but under forty years, who are unmarried or widowers without children";

"Class II.—The second class shall comprise all those of the age of thirty (30) years and upwards, but under 45 years, who are married, or widowers with children";

"Class IV.—The fourth class shall comprise all those of the age of 45 years and upwards, but under 50 years."

In framing this act the order in which men should serve was decided upon in such way as best to conserve and protect the best interests of Canada, socially and economically. This act is in force today (though not being enforced). It has received no adverse criticism from the party now in power, and if it does not correctly set out the proper order in which men should serve, this government should publicly point out wherein it errs, so that, openly and above board, men may know their duty and be able to do it.

If this question were one limited to the individuals own best interests, then, perhaps, it might be proper to let the individuals concerned decide for themselves where their duty lies. But it is not such a question. We are the units which collectively compose the nation. We are to live for it, and if necessary die for it, that it might survive—this, because the common interest is greater than the interest of any particular individual.

The real question at issue then appears to be an economic question, and one of which most men are more or less ignorant.

It is the government's clear duty to make plain to the people what military service plan will best protect and conserve the best interests of Canada.

So far from helping the people decide what they ought to do, the government have sanctioned a "button" or "badge" scheme which leaves open to criticism as "slackers" all married men who have wife or without children, whose duty it is in many cases (if not every case) to stay and keep Canada's business running. In other respects also this scheme, being based upon illogical and unreasonable premises, is open to serious criticism.

Perhaps it is too much to expect of a government (which apparently fear of losing its petty power, will not prosecute influential political persons like Bourassa, for seditious utterances, which would, and ought, to get always imprisoned), to ask that they clarify the present astounding situation (which would be ridiculous if it were not so serious), by enforcing the Militia Act and calling upon men to serve in the order they should serve, that Canada's interests might be properly safeguarded.

No man worthy of the name, if the act were enforced, would complain for the simple reason that he would know he was doing his duty, and he could enlist or go to fight with a clear conscience.

As things now are, enlistment is being left to the conscience or whim of the individual whose services are or may be required in the war, irrespective of whether that person's retirement would be delpful or harmful to Canada.

No effort has apparently been made by the government to secure a military census so as to determine the military assets Canada may have in the form of "men available for service; or the liabilities—in respect of foreigners who might be sources of danger, and who constitute perhaps the most important reason for even the existence of that excellent military body, the 101st Fusiliers. Isn't it time the government awakened and took these logical and simple precautions which any merchant or tradesman would take in keeping a record of his stock-in-trade? Canada has available men and talent she is not using. Why?

The Soldier-from Sarcee, as with anyone who speaks without becoming acquainted with the facts, apparently seems to have it called to his attention that the 101st Fusiliers, the 19th Alberta Dragoons, and the Engineers (now included in the Reserve Militia, under Lt. Col. Prince), have done and are doing most excellent service in the following amongst other ways:

(a) Procuring men for overseas service by acquainting them with military customs and usages and with military drill under conditions which appeal more to them than the stepping into expeditionary forces without such preparation. The figures, I am sure, would indicate that large numbers of the men who have gone overseas would not have done so had they not had the benefit of that preliminary training thus received. And what a brilliant record has been made by those men who went to France from these home defense units!

(b) Protecting the large proportion of the glorious "Princess Pats" was recruited from them.

(c) Protecting the defenceless ones at home and assuring the men at the front that they are being protected from uprisings on the part of foreigners in Canada.—And he would be a rash person indeed, who, in the light of all that has already taken place, would complacently say: "There is no danger from that source." This is also Lt. Col. Bowen's opinion. I am sorry, as expressed at a recent social smoker.

This much is clear. All the men, women and children of Canada should do all they can in every way they can to help create every effort to further the best interests of Canada and the Empire; but it is to the government they should look, as being the directors of Canada's affairs, for guidance as to what to do and when to do it. The government on this occasion should—must—lead, not follow, if national efficiency and the safeguarding of Canada's assets and economic interests are to reward the people's sacrifices.

I hope, sir, I have not transpressed unduly upon your valuable space.

Sincerely yours,
A. L. MARKS.

THIRD MEATLESS DAY.

BERLIN, Sept. 3, by wireless to Sayville.—According to a despatch from Vienna to the Overseas News Agency an order has been published in the Austrian capital introducing a third "meatless day." Mutton, however, may be eaten on this day.

Sees the Finish.

A physician passing by a stonemason's shop called out:

"Good morning, Mr. Jones. Hard at it, I see. I suppose you finish them as far as 'In memory of,' and then wait to see who wants a monument next?"

"Well, yes" replied the old man, "unless I hear somebody's ill and you're attending them. Then I keep right on."

BUYING HORSES FOR FRENCH ARMY

Purchases Are Made by Commission at Lacombe, Stettler and Trochu

The remount commission buying horses for the French army secured 12 animals at Lacombe, 16 at Stettler and 24 at Trochu. They are now in Southern Alberta this week, and will then go to British Columbia, returning to this province some time in October. The heavy draft is the kind of animal they are after; and this type is best secured by one or two crosses of draft stallions with cayuse mares, producing a horse that, while it is a little too light for farm work, and a little too chunky for the road, supplies what is exactly required for the rapid movement of light artillery.

Frank Wild Kept Party Together Under Trying and Difficult Circumstances

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)

LONDON, Sept. 5.—A fuller report from Lieut. Sir Ernest Shackleton, who arrived at Punta Arenas, Chile, Sunday, with the rescued members of his Antarctic expedition marooned on Elephant Island, gives credit to Frank Wild, second in command of the party on board the lost ship, the Endurance, for having kept his party together under trying conditions.

Sir Ernest gives a detailed account by Wild telling of the appalling weather during the early days of their imprisonment on the ice floes. Realizing the difficulty with which any rescue would be attended, they made no food allowance, which they supplemented with Penguins, seaweed and limpets.

BADLY DAMAGED ZEPPELIN SEEN

Fishermen Returning to Esbjerg, Denmark, Observe Airship in Trouble at Sea

LONDON, Sept. 4.—An Exchange Telegraph Company despatch from Copenhagen says that fishermen returning to Esbjerg, Denmark report that they observed a badly damaged Zeppelin yesterday morning. The crew was throwing articles overboard, and the fishermen believe the Zeppelin fell into the water between Sylt Island and the Schelswig coast. The airplane was accompanied by four other Zeppelins which were travelling eastward.

These reports probably refer to one of the Zeppelins which took part in the raid over England Saturday night.

IS YOUR TROUBLE Dyspepsia?

Don't let it spoil your life.
Don't let it ruin your chances.

Consider This.

Dyspepsia means that your stomach has lost tone and cannot properly deal with food. If you take digestives such as pepsin, you don't help your stomach; you only enable it to shirk its work. It will go on shirking. Stimulants on the other hand, whip up the digestive organs and end by exhausting them. You can't cure yourself that way.

Real cure consists in strengthening the digestive organs, and that you do when you take Dr. Cassell's Tablets. These Tablets (the most popular of all British remedies) restore the digestive organs by increasing the vital force of the system. Their power to increase vitality is phenomenal. That is why they are so sure, not only in dyspepsia but in all run-down conditions. Try them and see. You will be astonished at their efficacy.

Freddie Welsh Defends Lightweight Title Against Charley White After 20 Round Contest in Colorado Springs

Referee Roche Awards Verdict to Champion After a Close Battle

Associated Press Au Usual Gives the Champion the Worst of Story

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Sept. 4.—Freddie Welsh retained his lightweight championship of pugilist of the world today after going the full scheduled twenty rounds with Charley White, of Chicago. Referee Billy Roche, of New York, awarded Welsh the decision on points.

As the gong sounded at the close of the twentieth round, Roche stood for several moments as if undecided. He then reached both hands towards the boxers, and many of the spectators believed he was about to award a draw. Suddenly, Welsh rushed over to Roche and placed his glove in the referee's hand, and it was raised aloft, while the official appeared to be reaching for White. The next instant, jubilant friends of the champion swarmed into the ring.

An unfortunate accident and unpleasant incident marred the beginning and end of the day's program. Shortly before 2 o'clock a portion of the bleachers on the south side of the arena collapsed. More than a hundred persons were more or less seriously injured.

Roche in Trouble.

When Referee Roche announced his decision in favor of Welsh, the challenger's adherents appeared for the moment spellbound. Then began a fusillade of hundreds of cushions at the referee. He was rushed by friends to a waiting automobile. Guarded by a policeman, the vehicle was speeded to an unfrequented road to the hotel, while hundreds of men and boys rushed after it until distanced.

Not a Good Bout.

From a spectacular standpoint, the battle was considered one of the poorest that has ever been fought for the highest ring honors in the lightweight division. For fully two-thirds of the time the fighters were locked in a succession of clinches and pushing each other back and forward about the ring. For this, many spectators held, Welsh was largely to blame. Scarcely a blow was struck by either man that did any damage. White's punches carried the greater punitive power. While frequently Welsh was on the aggressive, and had his share of the leading, he was noticeable that many of his blows fell short, and failed to reach their mark.

The More Aggressive.

Roche stated after the fight that he awarded Welsh the decision, claiming he did most of the leading. With consummate ease, although he fought throughout practically all the fighting, worked with his back to the ropes. Neither man drew blood from his opponent, and there was no chance of particular evidence of havinb been in a championship battle. Welsh fought carefully and took no chances with his opponent. As a rule he clinched to avoid punishment.

Victims Will Recover.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Sept. 4.—The collapse of a portion of the bleacher seats at the Welsh-White fight here today precipitated two hundred spectators to the ground and several head are wounded, several seriously. At various hospitals here tonight, it was stated that all of the victims taken there immediately after the accident, would recover. Many were released after having their injuries dressed. The crash came before the larger part of the crowd had arrived.

The Fight By Rounds

Note.—The war correspondent of the American Associated Press has notoriously been prejudiced against Welsh for some time, and in all of the champion's recent fights he has given his title-holder the worst of it in the write-ups. For instance in the recent Leonard-Welsh contest, in which the champion put up his best fight since he won the title, the Associated Press operator-reporter couldn't see anything but Leonard in the battle; while the New York sporting writers were practically unanimous in giving Welsh the decision. The following account of the battle by rounds was written as the fight was in progress, and it would appear from it that White had won all the way. Fortunately there was a referee's decision allowed, and Roche awarded the verdict to Freddie Welsh, opinions of the Associated Press representative to the contrary notwithstanding. The following is the American Associated Press' account of the 20-round contest by rounds. What has prejudiced spectators will say of the bout will be watched with interest.—Sporting Editor.

(By Associated Press).

Round 1—Welsh led twice with left to the head, and they went into a clinch. A series of clinches followed without any blows being struck. White landed left to head. White sent right to head and left to the body, and Welsh clinched. The men did a lot of clinching, the crowd calling for them to break away. White sent a left hook to the stomach. Round even.

Round 2—Welsh led with left to the head, and White blocked and ran into another clinch. Welsh kept pounding White on the kidneys in the clinches. White sent two rights and lefts to the head and body. Welsh held on. The men were in clinch most of the round, White doing the most effective work.

Round 3—They ran into a clinch and wrestled around the ring. White sent right and left hooks to the body, and repeated as Welsh missed left to head. Few clean blows were struck, Roche being kept busy prying the men apart. Round even.

Round 10—Welsh drove left to the jaw. White sent right to head. White uppercut to stomach, and followed to left hook to ear. White's round.

Round 11—White sent left to head. and Welsh drove right to nose, rushing White back. The fighting has been practically even thus far, what lead White has been being shaded. White roughed Welsh to the head and body and the champion clinched. White's round.

Round 13—Both men were hard for an opening. White sent hard right to the jaw. Welsh's head seemed to lack steam. They were in the usual clinch when the round ended. White's round.

Round 14—White assumed the aggressive and landed right and left to body and head, and Welsh saved himself by clinching. A fight for the jaw forced Welsh to corner. White drove left twice to stomach. White landed right on cheek. White's round.

Round 15—White landed two rights to the body and Welsh's left to head. Welsh saved himself by clinching. Both men were fighting hard, but Welsh being the greater offender. Round even.

Round 16—Welsh landed twice to the nose with straight lefts, and received a left to the head. Welsh sent three left hooks to the mouth in quick succession. Welsh's round by a hard fight.

Round 17—Neither men has hurt the other, and neither shows any marks of the contest. Welsh landed a left to the body. White rushed Welsh and left to the body, but Welsh blocked. Welsh's round by a shade.

Round 18—The crowd called to the men to fight instead of clinching all the time, neither men getting in a telling blow. White slammed right and left hooks to ears, and again Welsh held to save himself. White's round.

Round 19—White drove a left hook to the head. Welsh sent right uppercut on Welsh's face with short right jabs. The crowd roared its encouragement to White. White drove right and left to the body as Welsh's continued holding angered him. White's round.

JOHNNY KILBANE DISPOSES OF GEO. CHANEY IN THREE ROUNDS

Referee's Decision Was Not Altogether a Very Popular Verdict

Accident Before Contest Causes Injuries to One Hundred Spectators

CINCINNATI, Sept. 4—Johnny Kilbane scored a lead over Dario Resta at the 168th mile and won the first annual 300-miles sweepstakes at the new Motorcycle track here today. Wilbur D'Alene was second, while Frank Galvin, far behind, drew down third money.

One accident marred the day's sport, Gilbert Anderson, while in the stretch run on the 168th mile, skidded and fell into the fence. His car turned turtle and he was dangerously injured. His mechanician, Bert Shields, suffered a fractured thigh and internal injuries, and his recovery is doubtful.

The first time over the race was three hours, five minutes, 27 seconds, an average of 57.06 miles per hour.

Ralph de Palma broke a connecting rod on the fourteenth mile and had to retire. Numerous other starters had engine and tire trouble and were forced to retire.

Dario Resta was third up to the 294th mile, when he encountered engine trouble and had to quit the race.

WILLIAMS AND JOHNSON IN FINALS

FOREST HILLS, N.Y., Sept. 4.—Master racquet wielders from the east and west met here today in the finals for the 1916 national singles tennis championship. R. Norris Williams, 2nd, of Philadelphia, and William M. Johnston, of San Francisco, sole survivors of the players who entered the tournament a week ago, won their places today in the finals by defeating respectively, Clarence J. Griffin, of San Francisco and R. Lindley Murray, of California and New York. Williams eliminated Griffin, 6-2, 6-1, 6-3, and Johnston checked Murray's flight 6-2, 6-2, 6-1.

In neither case was the victor severely pressed and the playing of the two matches consumed less than two hours. Former President Roosevelt was an interested spectator.

The winners demonstrated that they have reached the top of their tennis form and a sensational court battle is looked for tomorrow when they meet in the finals. They appear to be about equals and both won their way into the final round by merit.

TIE IN THE N.L.U. LACROSSE RACE

MONTREAL, Sept. 4.—Shamrocks are still in the National Lacrosse union championship race and have a chance for the championship by reason of their victory over administered Cornwall here today, by a score of 17 to 10. Shamrocks and Nationals are now tied for first place, and the decision should be had when these two teams meet here again next Saturday.

Winnipeg and Fargo Will Now Play Off in Little World's Series

WINNIPEG, Sept. 4.—The Winnipeg and Superior teams pulled down the curtain on the Northern league season for 1916 today with two somewhat burlesque games, the locals simply taking their fattening averages off the soft pitching and fielding, the scores being 13 to 2 and 11 to 4 respectively.

Labor Day Bouts

Levinsky Has Advantage.

EAST CHICAGO, Sept. 4—Ringside critics here tonight scored the boxers in his ten-round bout with K.O. Brown of Chicago here today. Brown had the edge in the first round, but Levinsky appeared to have a shade in all the others.

They fought at 158 pounds. Both are looking for Jack Dillon's light heavyweight title.

Griffiths Beat Rivers.

CANTON, Ohio, Sept. 4—Johnny Griffiths, of Akron, Ohio, outpointed Joe Rivers, of Los Angeles, here today in a 12-round bout, which was one of the best staged here in years. Rivers gave Griffiths a good argument for the first five rounds. After that it was all Griffiths. He Akron man was landing and jabbing Rivers almost at will.

Easy For Williams.

BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 4—Kid Williams, of Baltimore, world's bantamweight champion, easily outpointed Frank C. Brown, of New York, in their ten-round, no-decision bout here today. Brown dodged for the count of nine three times in the ninth round, and managed to stay the limit by holding.

Brown weighed in at 119½ pounds, Williams 118¼.

Joe Mandot Knocked Out.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 4.—Frankie Russell knocked out Joe Mandot in the fifteenth round of a scheduled twenty-round bout here tonight. Both are lightweights.

Featherweight Champion Landed Right Hook to Challenger's Jaw

It Was a Clean Knockout and the Finish Was Quick and Unexpected

CEDAR POINT, Ohio, Sept. 4— In less than eight minutes of actual fighting today Johnny Kilbane, of Cleveland, spoiled the hopes of Geo. Chaney, of Baltimore, for the world's featherweight championship. A terrific right smash to Chaney's jaw settled the battle near the end of the third round.

The champion's longer reach and greater defensive skill offset the spirited fight Chaney began with the first gong. The leads of the Baltimore lad were broken easily by Kilbane and the champion earned an even break in the first two rounds by his clever defensive tactics.

It was not until the third round that Kilbane cut loose and then he did so with a vengeance. He rushed the challenger to the ropes with the opening of the round and drew blood with a left to Chaney's face. Four times the men clinched in the third and Chaney tried by a vicious attack on the kidneys to weaken the champion. But Kilbane ran out easily from this attack and, biding his time, swung over to the point of the challenger's chin a wallop that spelled knockout and victory.

The Fight By Rounds

Round 1.—After less than half a minute of sparring time was called because of Kilbane's nose bleeding. They resumed again at 5:06 p.m. Kilbane led with left to the face and followed to the next exchange with right to head. Chaney sent left to body and the round ended with the men in another let to the body. Round even.

Round 2.—Kilbane opened the second round with a left to the jaw and quickly sidestepped a left swing by Chaney. The men broke away with fast mix-up, but just before the bell rang Kilbane shot a left to Chaney's jaw. Kilbane was using a left jab effectively, while Chaney played for the jaw.

Round 3.—Chaney carried the fight into Kilbane's corner and the champion's mixed three times broke clinches. Kilbane scored a left to the jaw. Chaney played successfully for the champion's kidneys. When the men broke for the fourth time in the round Kilbane sent across a right hook to the jaw which landed on the challenger face downward on the canvas. Referee Rinkel, taking the count of seconds with his right hand, strove vainly with his left to rouse the prostrate boxer. Chaney. The challenger could not respond and the champion was declared the winner.

HURDLES RECORD AGAIN LOWERED

John J. Eller Does 1?0 Hurdles in 14 1-5 Seconds in Competition

LEWISTON, Maine, Sept. 4—John J. Eller, of Irish-American A.C., New York, today broke the world's record established by himself in 1909 for the 120 yards hurdles, during the track events at the state fair here. His time was 14 1-5 seconds which clipped a fifth of a second off his previous mark. The meet was sanctioned by the New England branch of the A.A.U.

BEAR SITUATION SERIOUS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 4.—Secret dispatches from Pekin, are being pressed on China by Japan, as a result of the recent clash of Chinese and Japanese troops at Cheng Chiatun. It became known here tonight that the situation is much more serious than has been indicated, confidential reports say, and the unpublished demands threaten the authority of China over the whole of inner Mongolia.
